SV home – Gandhi Jayanthi and Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam's birthday celebrations

On the 23rd of October, 2010 Vasantham children along with kids from SV home participated in the elocution, quiz and drawing competition conducted by Dream India to celebrate Gandhi Jayanthi and Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam's birthday. This was the first time that the kids from Vasantham had participated in a quiz competition. The kids' performances went way beyond our expectations and some of their performances left us truly spellbound. They also participated in the cultural events by performing two dances and a pyramid show. Our kids performed exceedingly well and bagged quite a few prizes too. The encouragement and rousing support by the kids from SV home while Vasantham kids were on stage was louder than when their own friends were on stage! To sum it all up, this was just a perfect day with the interaction between these two groups. Our special thanks to SV home and Dream India.
